CAPT. JAMES HACKELAND, one of the early day employees of the Hudson Bay Company, died at Winnipeg last week. The deceased will be remembered by many old timers in this district as he was in charge of the old Rocky Mountain House about thirty years ago.

A meeting held in Clover Bar school on Friday night by a unanimous vote of confidence in the sitting member was passed on the motion of Wm. Keith seconded by S. Ottowell. The meeting was addressed by M. McCauley, neither of the other candidates appearing.

T. W. CHALMERS, D. L. S., and two of his men, J. D. Hutton and A. K. Dupre, returned from the Beaver lake trail survey camp on Friday. They leave to-day by trail for Wetaskiwin whence they will survey a road east to Dried Meat lake. The Beaver lake road is blazed through to the lake and the party are continuing the trail cutting and expediting to have it completed by the end of next week.

An exchange reports the accidental death in Vancouver of P. W. Keyser, of Montreal. The deceased was working as a logger in Tait's lumber camp, near Vancouver, and was standing in a chute, when he was struck in the back with a heavy log and instantly killed. Keyser was one of the Montreal Yukon bound party who came this far and then, on account of the abandoning of their leader Hognard with the funds of the expedition, and other internal troubles, disbanded and dispersed.

HARRISON S. YOUNG, fishery inspector, has completed his inspection of the lakes throughout the district. He reports that the halfbreeds are satisfied with the present fishery regulations, as they recognize that the protection of the fish in spawning season is a benefit to them in the long run. The only objection they have to make is that some lakes are under the inspection of guardians while other fishing lakes are not so protected. He was favorably impressed with the Galician settlements through which he passed.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made with the land to play at Holden &amp; Johnston's rink on every Tuesday evening during the winter.

The debris of the Hutton block, destroyed by fire, is being removed and the site cleared. A small office will be erected there.

MEETINGS in the interests of G. Rutherford will be held at Stony Plain on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Opposing candidates invited.

JOSEPH ROSE and son, of Battlefield, write from St. John stating they reached there safely. The will winter at Graham where they can make good wages.

THE addition to Leader's fruit and confectionery store is completed and was opened for business on Saturday with a full line of tobacco, cigars and fancy goods.

A SUCCESSFUL social was held in the presbyterian church on Thursday evening last. Refreshments were served and an interesting musical programme provided.

A CORRESPONDENT writes from Dawson to the Plaindealer says: "C. M. Robertson is making his pile." Fred Robertson, W. Matheson and son, William Inkster, Harry Woodward and some other Edmonton men are here. They tell a terrible tale of their trip.

W. M. BELL, of the Williams &amp; Bell prospecting party, returned from the Findlay river 135 miles above Graham, yesterday. Williams returned to his home in Vancouver, going out by Ashcroft. Four members of the Good Hope party also returned with Mr. Bell; their names are Smith, Colosky, McGregor and Bowen. A man named Biery of another party also returned. Mr. Bell located an excellent mine claim 12 miles from Graham and is well satisfied with his trip. He emphatically contradicts the stories of hardship and privation among the parties on the trail.

THE Battleford Herald reports the arrival there of four men calling themselves the Leland party, who came by Edmonton in April and went as far as the canyon on the Peace river by canoe. They, apparently, returned down the Peace river to Kamloops, via the Great lake and Portage La Loche route. When they left St. John there were about a hundred miners working with grizzlies. The party sold one of their canoes at St. John and are returning to Winnipeg with the other. They will go down the Saskatchewan and make a portage into lake Winnipegosis and thence to Winnipeg.

A MANUFACTORY for the making of tombstones, tile flooring and granolithic walks has been opened by Messrs. Armstrong and Parsons in the eastern annex of the Columbia house. Some excellent samples of work are being turned out. The stones are made from a composition composed of cement and other ingredients and formed in moulds in any shape desired. By the mixing of color in the composition before it hardens the appearance of marble is imparted to it.

Mr. Parsons was engaged in work in New York where the composition is rapidly superseding the genuine granite and marble to which it is claimed to be superior by reason of its ability to stand all weather without tarnishing or chipping.

HARRY ANTONY writes to E. Raynor from Fort Vermilion on the 1st of August, stating: "We arrived here three days ago and are waiting for a steamboat to go up to Dawson. Men are leaving Dawson by the thousands and great dissatisfaction is felt over the way matters are conducted in Dawson. Geo Purches is with me. He goes up the Porcupine on Monday with a boat for the mission. Three of our gang go with him. There are seven in our party and two go up to Dawson to see just how everything stands. Capt. Segers is on the 'Sovereign'; she called here yesterday on her down trip. Fred Robertson is clerking at Circle City, McNeil, Hardisty, and Adamson are at Dawson."

THE editor of the Plaindealer has received a letter from F. H. Herbert, formerly of South Edmonton, now of Dawson, in which he says: "I have been here this month but have not seen very little yet. It seems to me I'll have had enough hard work done does not count. I have been out on the hills and creeks all summer and have dug and worked faithfully and found very little. I have found several places where I could wash from $5 to $8 a day but I could not be content with that. The thousands that are here are taking everything they can get. I believe lots of them are getting less than $5 a day. The country has been terribly exaggerated and thousands have beggedged themselves to come here. All down the Yukon, up the Selwyn, White, Stewart, Pelly and other rivers has been prospected by men who have worked faithfully, and not a single pot has been found that had anything on bed rock. There has been no new strike. Eldorado creek is rich, very rich in spots and so are there. There is a man at the mouth of it who has rocked $2,000 in a day with his assayer. Sir James Gulch comes into Bonanza at No. 2 above Discovery and there is perhaps the richest spot in the country or on earth for all that is known. You can see the gold in the gravel in nuggets. I staked a good bench claim on Bonanza but lost it by not "standing in" with the officials. I tell you I have been sore to see the way that British law and justice have been dealt out here. The shame that has been put upon the flag here has never before been known, I guess, in British territory. From the boundary at Lake Bennett to Dawson corruption has been rampant all summer. It seems that all officials from the lowest constable to the gold commissioner have just been "in it" for all they could make. But Dawson took the cake. If a man staked a claim and the others thought it was a good one they would have had hard time to get it. They would send some friend to stake it and tell the other man to move back in ten days, at which time they would claim it was recorded. I never had occasion to feel ashamed of being a British subject until I came here. Ogilvie came in ten days ago. He may be able to change things but it is doubtful."

T. W. CHALMERS, D. L. S., and two of his men, J. D. Hutton and A. K. Dupre, returned from the Beaver lake trail survey camp on Friday. They leave to-day by trail for Wetaskiwin whence they will survey a road east to Dried Meat lake. The Beaver lake road is blazed through to the lake and the party are continuing the trail cutting and expediting to have it completed by the end of next week.

The deceased was working as a logger in Tait's lumber camp, near Vancouver, and was standing in a chute, when he was struck in the back with a heavy log and instantly killed. Keyser was one of the Montreal Yukon bound party who came this far and then, on account of the abandoning of their leader Hognard with the funds of the expedition, and other internal troubles, disbanded and dispersed.

DEAR RESIDENT ELECTORS.

Fort Saskatchewan, Oct. 19, '98.

EDITOR BULLETIN.

DEAR SIR: A large number of the electors of the Victoria district would be greatly obliged to you or any of your readers for the interpretation of the words "resident elector" as it appears in ordinance No. 11 of 1897. "The Territories election ordinance." In section No. 2 it is enacted that every voter for the election of a member of the legislative assembly shall be addressed to such "resident elector" of the electoral district in which the election is to be held as the lieutenant-governor appoints. In form G, "information to electors," it is stated that an elector must have resided in the electoral district for at least three months "immediately preceding" the time of voting; and again in form B a returning officer has to swear that he is legally qualified to act as such.

Now, Dr. Johnstone in his dictionary of the English language says that the verb "to reside" means "to live in a place"; again in no place in the ordinance is it mentioned that a man's property or family can represent his residence. Is it the appointment of the returning officer for this district that legal?

This is the point the electors wish to be enlightened on: "How a man who resides in Edmonton, and has his business there, can also reside at Fort Saskatchewan and still be a qualified elector," we should like to know.

A "resident" elector of the Victoria district.

IMMIGRATION.

The Rosthern Mennonite reserve comprises the even sections, except Hudson's Bay, in township 40, in ranges 3, 4, and 5, and in township 41, range 4, west of the 3rd meridian, west of Duck lake, in the district of Saskatchewan. By a recent order-in-council township 41, range 3, has been added. The order-in-council sets forth as the reason for reserving these townships for Mennonites only, that the two Mennonite reserves in Manitoba are overcrowded by arrivals from the States and Europe and by natural increase, and that the Rosthern reserve was made and is now increased to meet the growing needs of the Mennonite families of Manitoba and to encourage Mennonite settlement in Canada. The order-in-council recites that it is "in the public interest to encourage the Mennonites in their efforts to promote settlement, and to do this it is necessary to give the intending settlers an assurance that they will be enabled to carry out the principles of their social system and to settle together in hamlets."

There is a bad feature about this arrangement and also a good feature. The bad feature is that Mennonites born, or at least reared, in Manitoba are so anxious to keep themselves separate from the rest of the community that lands in a number of townships must be reserved for their use only. That is, while a small proportion of the land is actually settled upon at once by these people the large proportion is held vacant awaiting their good pleasure or that of their friends to come and occupy it. This is a favor that is not extended to ordinary Canadian or British settlers, and the question naturally arises, is a Mennonite so much more desirable a settler than any other man that he should be accorded privileges not accorded to others. If Canadian born Mennonites are so prejudiced against their fellow citizens that to induce them to remain in the country it is necessary to give them a reservation by themselves, it is evidence that there are disadvantages as well as advantages connected with a Mennonite population. It is certainly a question how far these prejudices should be encouraged by any special favors.

The good feature of the arrangement is that the government has recognized the desirability of directing and indeed of substantially encouraging the overflow of population in one part of the country to the vacant lands in another part. This is a departure that it is to be hoped will not stop with the Mennonites, or with the overflow of Manitoba, but will be extended to take cognizance of the great annual overflow from the eastern provinces to the States. In the last thirty years Canada has lost more men and more money by removal to the United States than she would likely have lost in any ordinary manner with that country. It is almost inconceivable that Canada with a population of less than five millions has a million native born Canadians in the States. Yet it is a fact, presumptive evidence of which is within the knowledge of every resident of Canada. And the drain is still going on. The existence of a vast Canadian population in the States is recognized by the Canadian immigration department, for the efforts of its agents there are specially directed towards securing the return of these ex-Canadians. But of the hundreds of thousands who have gone what a comparatively few have returned, and how greatly would Canada have benefited had these hundreds of thousands whom the eastern provinces could not hold come to the Northwest. Instead of recognizing the desirability of directing this overflow of our own population to the Northwest our government in the past has discouraged rather than encouraged such a movement. In the administration of Northwest lands every man was given preference over a Canadian. No wonder Canadians went to the States when they were apparently not wanted in their own country. To-day Americans are given advantageous transportation rates to the Northwest such as are not accorded to Canadians, and Canadians are given better rates to the States than they are given to the Northwest. A case of national hari-kari. Although the extension of the Rosthern Mennonite reserve in one way seems like an extension of the anti-Canadian principle, it is to be hoped instead that it is the beginning of an active effort on the part of our government to direct our overflow of population generally—not Mennonites only—to desirable vacant lands in the Canadian west. Give the young Canadian of Eastern Canada to understand that he is wanted in the west and that the best there is not too good for him, and there will be no need of paying immigration agents to go to the States to coax back a handful out of the million we have lost. We may not be able to repair the damage done, but we can prevent a continuation of the damage. To hold our own people should be our first effort. When we have succeeded even measurably in doing that, we will have taken the longest step towards securing a desirable immigration from other countries. A country that cannot retain its own people is not in a good position to secure desirable settlers from other countries, no matter what beautiful advertising matter it may issue or how many glib tongued and highly paid immigration agents it may employ.

WHEAT.

On Saturday last one hundred thousand bushels of wheat were marketed at C. P. R. points along the main and branch lines. The prices paid were as follows:

Main line—High Bluff 56, Portage la Prairie 56, Burnsfield 46, Bagot 56, Brandon 62, Kemnay 61, Carberry 58, Oak lake 58, Douglas 58, Alexander 57, Austin 57, Griswold 57, Fleming 57, Moose Jaw 54, Regina 52.

The principal deliveries were 9,000 bushels at Carberry, 5,000 at Gretna, 5,000 at Winkler, 4,000 at Brandon and 4,000 at Douglas.

The highest price was 63 cents at Hartney and the lowest 51 cents at Otterburne. The average price was 56 cents.

COURT OF REVISION.

The adjourned sittings of the court of revision were held on Thursday evening last, when a number of minor appeals and a few more important ones were considered. K. Mackenzie & Co's wholesale stock was reduced from $9,000 to $7,000. Gariepy & Chenier stock assessment was reduced from $12,000 to $10,000. G. F. & J. Galt further reduced from $10,000 to $8,000. W. J. Walker stock reduced from $9,000 to $8,000. P. Heimink on behalf of W. Beatty appealed on assessment of a number of lots, but assessment stood. Macdonald estate appealed from assessment of $12,550 was also left unchanged. Other appeals by P. Heimink were: fifty-six feet on Main street river lot 8 assessment reduced by $100. Lots 8 to 15, block 2 river lot 10, claimed $100 as against $150 assessment, assessment stood. Lots 9 to 15, block 3, claimed $70, assessment $100, stands; 7 to 15, assessment of $60 stands; 3 and 6 to 8, block 7, assessed at $60, reduced to $55, claimed $40. Lots 11 to 15, block 9, assessment of $45 stands; 4 and 6 to 11, block 12, assessed at $35, claimed $20, assessment stands. Lot 10, block 13, reduced from $30 to $25.

P. Heimink for Jos. Viles, Lot 12, block 12, claimed $100, assessment of $200 stands. Lots 21 to 24, block 3, river lot 12, claimed $50, assessment of $100 stands. Lot 36, block 3, river lot 12, assessment $125 stands. Lot 4, river lot 6, assessed at $1,250 assessment of $1,250 stands. Two other parcels assessed at $75 stand. An error occurred in the report of the hospital assessment in last issue. The reduction should have read "by" $10,000 not "to" $10,000. The assessment on the hospital now is $29,000 instead of $39,000.

A Kansas City despatch of the 17th, says: A genuine blizzard prevails in the southwest and west to-day. A heavy wet snow has fallen since 3 o'clock this morning, driven by strong wind. The wires are down in all directions and will delay railway traffic. The snow was followed by twenty-four hours of steady rain.

Madie Brown, the much wanted one-legged tramp, who is supposed to have killed policeman Twohey at London, Ont., several months ago, was handed over to Governor Boston of the county jail, on Saturday evening. Several hundred people had gathered at the station to see him, but few got the opportunity. The prisoner had been very talkative all through the journey until the vicinity of London was reached, when he seemed to lose heart.

F. S. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Temperance alliance, makes the following statement in his analysis of the vote on prohibition: The German and French elements of our population were found to be hostile to prohibition. The English, Irish and Scotch are strongly in its favor. Outside critics as London, Hamilton, Kingston, the three partly urban constituencies, and every constituency in the Dominion that has not a large French or German vote, declared in favor of prohibition. This is the most striking and probably the most important detail of the vote. There are nine anti-prohibition constituencies in which the electorate of British origin voted "No." The German voters defeated prohibition in five constituencies in Ontario. French voters defeated prohibition in five constituencies in Quebec, one in New Brunswick, one in Nova Scotia and fifty-seven in Quebec and perhaps one in Manitoba. The remaining 125 constituencies all voted "Yes."

Fred Schoff, brother of barrister Schoff, has returned from the Yukon and gave the Toronto Telegram considerable information concerning official wrong doing in the Yukon. During the course of his remarks he said: "I didn't record any claims. I know, though, that officials declined to allow us to search the books, and frequently refused to make the search themselves. When you wanted to see if claims were recorded, a common method of procedure was to go to a policeman or other subordinate official." These you paid money to, and they found out for you the facts required. Fred Schoff is prepared to say that hundreds of miners left the country through inability to gain access to the recording books. They could only get information by paying money on the side, and for lack of this essentially useful the only thing to do was to quit the country.

To the Electors OF THE VICTORIA DISTRICT.

GENTLEMEN:—For the past four years I have been your representative in the Legislative Assembly, and now, at the request of a large number of electors, I once more ask for your support in the coming election.

I do not for one moment suppose that I have pleased everybody, but at the same time I would ask that each and every elector will give due consideration to what I have tried to do, and have done, for the general benefit of the constituency and country at large.

In conclusion I will only say that if elected to represent you I shall consider I have been greatly honored, and I hope under divine guidance I shall never seek to do, or shall present myself in every way worthy of the trust committed by you into my hands.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,

Get the most For your Money

Not the greatest weight for that is not the proper way to estimate the value of tea, it is the strength and flavor that determine it. What is called tea can be bought for a few cents per pound and yet it is expensive.

Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea

has never been known as a "cheap" tea, yet it is economical because of its purity, flavor, and great strength. It will brew nearly double the number of good cups of tea than any other brand will, and no other tea in the world will hold its flavor so well against the Alkali Waters of the North West.

Ram Lal's Tea is a pure Indian Blend put up in sealed packets which retain all the strength, original delicate aroma and delicious flavor.
